

Mark Waid Interview Sheet

After you watch the interview with Mark Waid, answer these questions with a partner.

1. Where does Mark find good ideas?

Looks for what he finds interesting that day immediately on the web.

2. What kind of things capture your interest?

Fantasy and video games.

3. What is a story that has interested you recently? Why did it interest you?

Fire Emblem. All the games are very fun to play and the stories that they tell are all amazing and engaging journeys.

4. According to Mark, can a story have too much information?

Yes. That's why the 16 panel limit works, because it forces the writer to start the story as late as possible and end it as soon as possible. It makes the story quick and to the point.

5. What is something that Mark said in the interview that stood out to you?

Find your emotional contact.
