Give feedback ONLY on what you like about the image that was submitted to peer review. Notice the lines, the shapes, the ideas. Try and use the following sentence for your feedback:

"What I like about this piece of artwork is [insert what you like]"

Try and keep your response to one sentence. Talk about only one thing that you like.

Try not to use the words "good" and "bad" - they are irrelevant in this course. Our culture is about encouragement, and the binary of good and bad introduce judgement - an unnecessary concept for a course like this (or for any art course, really).

Hard boiled, old, grumpy, meditative. This good sir it's an amazing detective that I would love to know more about.

It's surprising how you drew this in only five minutes... It's really good!! Pretty caricature-ish... Wow, it's great!

vkox

What I like about this piece of artwork is the confident stroke work and the shading with lines

Andrea

Dang, the exaggerated nose is what sells the drawing for me. Absolutely amazing! The way you draw with your pen is careless but precise (if that makes any sense!) and it just helps to bring more mystery to the detective. 10/10

Diana ramirez

I love the facial expression of your character and the type of line you have

Juan Manuel Cortes

is not drawn

Mark shaw

I love the pen and ink work. Expressive yet clear.

Kay rodriques

Interesting hatching on nose -- I will have to steal that technique! This is a very expressive drawing.
